

2015 Mid North Coast Research Conference

2nd & 3rd December 2015

PROGRAM

DAY ONE: Wednesday 2nd December

6:00-7:30pm	PRE-CONFERENCE 'MEET & GREET' Mercure Hotel, Rooftop Terrace, 103 William Street, Port Macquarie NSW
-------------	---

DAY TWO: Thursday 3rd December

8:00-9:00am	PRE-CONFERENCE REGISTRATIONS OPEN Joint Health Education Facility (JHEF), Rural Clinical School, University of New South Wales, Highfields Cct, Port Macquarie NSW
9:00-9:20am	WELCOME
9:20-9:50am	Keynote Speaker – Professor Gail Whiteford
9:50-10:20am	Keynote Speaker – Professor Susan Nancarrow
10:20-11:00am	MORNING TEA Trade Display and Poster Exhibition
	Diversity and Health Outcomes	Developing Health Professionals	Creativity in Clinical Practice
11:00-11:20am CONCURRENT SESSION ONE	Should unwell adult hospitalised patients be encouraged to brush their teeth twice daily by nurses? Moriah Resurreccion	Exploring the motivation, anxiety levels, experiences, and satisfaction of paramedic students participating in a study tour to Asia Joe Acker	An overview of the DaPPHne (Diagnosing Potentially Preventable Hospitalisations) project Dr Jennifer Johnston
11:20-11:40am CONCURRENT SESSION TWO	Malnutrition Screening, Assessment, Diagnosis, Coding: Review of work practices and implications for Casemix Funding Deborah Doyle	The Transition from Nursing to Paramedicine – A Longitudinal Study Tania Johnston	Tick-Clot, Tick-Clot-How do we stop the clot clock? Courtney Dixon
11:40am-12:00pm CONCURRENT SESSION THREE	Developing and trialling an innovative outreach oral health system for aged care - the Booroongen Djugun initiative Dr Roshan Abraham	The Future of Paramedics in Humanitarian Aid Siobhan Graham	Why am I here? A Standardised Capacity Testing Process for Confused Patients John Shibu
12:00-12:20pm CONCURRENT SESSION FOUR	Precautionary immobilisation in suspected spinal cord injury patients: Patient or clinician centred? Kim Wiegold	Foresight instead of hindsight: An ideal model for designing an Electronic Health Record System for contemporary occupational therapy practice Haozhi Jiang (Nick)	Patient deterioration between the flags. Elyse MacKenzie

2015 Mid North Coast Research Conference

2nd & 3rd December 2015

PROGRAM

12:20-1:20pm	LUNCH Trade Display and Poster Exhibition
1:20-2:00pm	Keynote Speaker – Professor Sally Chan
2:00-2:20pm CONCURRENT SESSION FIVE	How effective are Humanitarian Refugees at navigating the Health system in a rural area: the experiences of refugees who have resided in the Coffs Harbour area for more than 5 years Michele Greenwood	Development and Delivery of a Clinician Airway Monitor Course Dr Jo Sutherland	The cancer journey experiences of care reported by patients and carers seen at the Mid North Coast Cancer Institute campus in Port Macquarie Ken Proctor
2:20-2:40pm CONCURRENT SESSION SIX	Inadvertently locking out the most needy from health services Rohena Duncombe	Caring for Patients with Chronic Disease: Palliative Care Nurses Perspectives Debbie White	Patient perspectives in the DaPPHne (Diagnosing Potentially Preventable Hospitalisations) project Dr Jo Longman
2:40-3:00pm CONCURRENT SESSION SEVEN	Vocational Interventional Program Craig Suosaari	Residential Aged Care Facilities (FACFs) Education and Quality Improvement Project Jenny Zirkler	The Research Nurses' view from of the DaPPHne (Diagnosing Potential Preventable Hospitalisations) project Emma Norris/ Charmaine Emerson
3:00-3:30pm	AFTERNOON TEA Trade Display and Poster Exhibition
3:30-3:50pm CONCURRENT SESSION EIGHT	Whose Care Plan is it Anyway? Kim Edwards	Collaborating on a model of care for the treatment of co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders: An innovative model designed by clinical services. Catherine Foley	Improving the use of Flexible Diuretic Regimens; An integrated approach to care improvement in regional Northern NSW Francesca Leaton
3:50-4:10pm CONCURRENT SESSION NINE	Avoiding the costly crisis: Synthesizing evidence from Aboriginal haemodialysis patients and their service providers to inform delivery of renal services in rural NSW to Aboriginal people Elizabeth Rix	Swimming in an ocean of FOAM: Using open access medical education to drive better health outcomes Joe Acker	Management of Hip Fracture in the older patient Vicki Newton
4:10-4:20pm	Summation of Conference/Conference close

Program is subject to change